

Come Behind the Scenes of the North Carolina Muscadine Industry

The NCMGA Invites You to Join Us
on our Summer Field Tour
*Friday July 22, 2011

General Information:

The summer meeting format is designed to offer participants a field-based experience. Each summer a new region of North Carolina is selected to spotlight our muscadine industry. This year we are focusing on the diverse muscadine innovations and opportunities in Duplin County.

The tour will originate and conclude at the Duplin Cooperative Extension Office at 165 Agriculture Drive, Kenansville, NC, which is located off I-40, exit 373. Sign-in begins at 8:30 am, tour departs at 9:00 am.

Registration Information:

Meals, snacks, and handouts are included in the registration fee.
Registration deadline: July 14, 2011.

Registration Fee: NCMGA Members ($30.00) Non-Members ($45.00)

New Membership (good through 12/31/2012): $75.00 for up to four individuals

Transportation Information:

Participants are responsible for their own transportation (there is no bus this year). Extra vehicles may be left at the Duplin Cooperative Extension Office if you would like to carpool with other attendees.

Lodging Information:

Lodging is not included in the registration fee. Participants are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements, if an overnight stay is required. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Holiday Inn Express in Warsaw (Exit 364) for $80/night plus tax. Please call 910-293-2800 to make your reservation by July 15.
